Spring Conference

Saturday May 21, 2022 at Quaker Lake Conference Center

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Janet Robbins

When I think back to my article in 2020 at the beginning of the pandemic, I would never have dreamed that COVID would still be with us in 2022. Even though things have changed and we all have had losses and challenges, it is prayer that has remained a constant.

As I think about prayer and how important it is for our journey in this life, I want to share a story about my granddaughter, Hillary. She has a pure heart and a compassion for others. One Sunday when she and her family were visiting, she sat on my left side in church and my grandson James sat on my right. Grandchildren are such a blessing! As we came to Open Worship in the service, it became very quiet and I bowed my head. From my left Hillary looked up at me and said, "What are we doing Grandma?" I smiled and quietly replied "We are praying." She whispered "Ok, I will pray for Julia." This was my husband's mother who had just experienced a stroke. After a while of silent worship, I felt her glance my way again. She quietly leaned in to say, "Grandma, are we still praying?" I nodded yes and smiled. She quietly bowed her head again. I guess this is my message today to keep on praying.

Janet's granddaughter

The January February issue of The Advocate inspired me to keep on praying and also to help promote our giving to our Greensheet projects. Most of the budget lines for field staff are $1,000 less than last year with the total goal for 2022 being under budgeted by $10,000. This is mainly the result of smaller USFW groups and less support. One fund that has been added is the FUM COVID Solidarity Fund. This fund has helped with PPE for Lugulu Hospital, food assistance in Belize and Kenyan communities, supplies for Ramallah, FTC and other unexpected needs. Another article by Rita Mintmier in The Advocate tells us ways to help our children understand the needs in our world. We take so much for granted and can't imagine being hungry, cold or living without electricity, running water or an indoor bathroom. The Gratitude Calendar on the RSWR website lists items each day and suggests donating a few cents in gratitude. Examples: Running water- donate 1 cent for each faucet in your house or electricity- donate 1 cent for each electrical outlet in your home.

Another area to keep praying for is support of our mission field staff. At our Spring Conference at Quaker Lake on May 21, 2022, we will host Katrina McConaughy as our virtual speaker. Shawn and Katrina McConaughy will be returning from Africa and we look forward to hearing about FUM ministries over the past four years in East Africa. We will use social distancing and wear our masks if needed. Hope to see you in May. (More information on last page of this newsletter).

CHILDREN AND YOUTH EDUCATION

Denise E. Barnes

"In the temple courts, He found men selling cattle, sheep and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money. So He made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple area, both sheep and cattle; He scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. To those who sold doves He said, "Get these out of here! How dare you turn my Father's house into a market!" - John 2: 14-16 (NIV)

Spring is only a few weeks away! After a cold winter, everyone is ready for Spring, such a wonderful time of year. The temperatures become warmer, the trees begin to grow new leaves, and flowers start to bloom. There are other ways we know spring is here: baseball season begins! And, many people do their "spring cleaning".

Do your parents do spring cleaning? They probably use many things to help them clean: paper towels, mops, sponges, window cleaner and lots more! Spring cleaning is not just a time to get everything fresh and clean, but it's also a time to get rid of things that you don't need.

The Bible verses above tell about a time when Jesus did some spring cleaning. It was time for Passover, an important holiday celebration. He traveled to Jerusalem and went to the temple. When He got there, he could not believe what He saw! There were people selling cattle, sheep, and doves for them to sacrifice in the temple. There were tables set up for money changers so that people could change their money to pay their temple taxes. It looked more like a circus than a house of worship! Jesus was very upset at this sight. He made a whip out of some rope and drove the cattle, sheep and the people who were selling them out of the temple. He went to the money changers' tables and turned them over. He told the people who were selling the doves, "Get these out of here! How dare you turn my father's house into a market!" So Jesus did some spring cleaning of His own that day!

When we read and think about Jesus cleansing the temple, we should also think about other ways that cleansing needs to be done. We are also in a season called Lent. In the beginning, the word Lent meant "the season of spring". Nowadays, we observe it as a time to look inside ourselves and see if there is anything that needs to be changed. Are there some areas of your life where Jesus needs to do some "spring cleaning"? Many people give up certain foods during the season of Lent, because they may not be good for them. But we also need to look inside and see if we need to "sweep away" things like anger or jealousy. If we turn our eyes and hearts to Jesus, He will help us to decide what we need to get rid of.

"Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me." – Psalm 51:10

"Dear Jesus, During this time of year when we think of "spring cleaning" and getting rid of things that are no longer good for us, we ask that you forgive us when we do wrong and make us clean. Amen."

PEACE AND CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

Linda Kersey

My dear sisters of the USFW, the theme for this Blueprints Program year is “Resting in His Shadow”, Psalm 91:1-2. Now that is the real meaning of “Peace”. Peace is resting in God’s shadow. Imagine a small child skipping about behind or beside a parent, happy to be able to hide in the parent’s huge shadow. That reminds us of God’s huge shadow that covers all or any one of us who needs a rest. Resting is a synonym for Peace which all Earthlings crave.

My purpose here is to promote PEACE first of all, and ALL PEACE comes from God.

Secondly, I propose to educate you about social concerns. However, my knowledge about “social concerns” is limited. Therefore, I encourage you to learn about these “concerns” in our publications, The Advocate and Carolina Woman.

This is why I have questions in my article that you can answer from these publications and then you can learn about real “Social Concerns”. You can earn a subscription to The Advocate and a $20 meal check if you are one of the first five to answer the questions. Call in or text your answers to (336) 402-6020, or email them to linx5432@gmail.com.

Jan Dough answers in the top five almost every time and gives her 2 prizes away. The first person to answer the questions last time was Becké Jones who called them in to me. She gave her subscription of The Advocate to Gail Phillips in Greensboro. Then gave her $20 meal check as a donation to FEMAP. It’s your turn to become a winner for yourself or for someone else who doesn’t get The Advocate.

Answer as often as you like. When you give your winnings away, you are promoting The Advocate, Carolina Woman, and Social Concerns!

Here are your latest five questions – four from The Advocate and #5 is from Carolina Woman.

1. Who is on the front of the Jan/Feb 2022 Advocate?
2. What positions do they hold?
3. Who wrote “Learning to Share our ‘Wealth’” and what is her position?
4. Who wrote “It’s a Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood” and what is her position?
5. Who wrote the following quote: “Do we take the time to appreciate our blessings like sunshine or shade, rain or fluffy clouds in a clear blue sky, the sounds of God’s creatures or the quiet of walking forest trails? God’s blessings extend beyond our physical world...Christ showed us how to be a blessing to others by his example. He met people at the point of their needs. Let us follow Christ’s leading as we provide items for FEMAP kits, support organizations like Salvation Army, donate to local food pantries, support our missionaries and assist those in our own communities who are in need.” (Hint – she is a member of NCUSFW and writes about “Christian Service”)

Last word – the COVID pandemic has weakened our NCUSFW statewide. Let’s now move forward with gusto to strengthen, energize and enlighten our Quaker women friends to be a light in our circles and meetings.

STEWARDSHIP

Sherry Quinn

GRATITUDE OR GREED

Which heart do you have about your money?

	Gratitude	Greed
Attitude	Humility (Phil. 2:3)	Grumbling (Phil. 2:15)
Perspective	Grace: "I am a sinner who deserves death but Jesus paid the price and gave me his perfect righteousness."	Entitlement: "I am a good person who deserves heaven—plus a comfortable, pain-free existence in the meantime."
Desire	Jesus is enough to satisfy my life.	Jesus is not enough. I want wealth / fame / comfort / power as well.
Money	God gives. Therefore my money is his, and I use it to glorify him.	I earn. Therefore my money is mine, and I use it however I please.
Possessions	Contentment: I have enough	Covetous: I never have enough
Church	Serve as a member of God's family	Be served as a consumer
Job	Work heartily for the Lord; cultivating thanks for God's provision (Deut. 8:17; Col. 3:23)	Work begrudgingly for the man; becoming bitter and jealous against others (James 3:16)
Family	A blessing to embrace	A burden to escape
Future	Eternal: optimistic/hopeful (2 Cor. 4:7-9)	Temporal: pessimistic/anxious
Worship	Time, energy, and resources go to God	Time, energy, and resources go to me
Identity	Jesus and his achievement	My abilities and my achievements
Giving	Generous	Guilt- or gain-motivated (or non-existent)

Which column most accurately describes your life? In which areas are you encouraged?
Where do you need to repent and seek forgiveness?

When looking at Stewardship, the above graphic can be used as a guide to see where we are. If we are indeed seeking God's guidance and following His will then those things should come natural. Are we doing the things we do with the correct mindset? Are we showing God's love to others? Are we maintaining what He has given where He would be pleased? If you can answer yes, then you are right where you need to be. However, I know that there is always room for improvement where I am concerned. I am still a work in progress and pray that through prayer, listening and leaning into His will, I will hopefully, make my Lord and Savior proud.

1 Corinthians 4:1-21

This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. For I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me. Therefore, do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Judy Craven

The term “Christian Service” implies doing something, most often providing for needs of people in our own communities. Of course, we become aware of needs of people in near and far regions of the world. Many of you have assisted with food and shelter of the homeless, delivered a hot meal for a family that is grieving the loss of a loved one, purchased hygiene items for needy school children, donated to relief efforts in the Kentucky tornado area, and contributed to the sanitary pad project for school girls in Turkana and Samburu, Kenya.

How do we decide where God wants each of us to “work” to provide for the needs of others?

The following is William Barclay's Bible study on The Gospel of John entitled “The Only True Work”:

John 6:28-29 Then they asked him, “What must we do to do the works God requires?” Jesus answered, “the work of God is this: to believe in the one he has sent.”

“When Jesus spoke about the works of God, the Jews immediately thought in terms of “good” works. It was their conviction that by living a good life it was possible to earn the favour of God. They held that people could be divided into three classes- those who were good, those who were bad and those who were in between, who, by doing one more good work, could be transferred to the category of the good. So, when the Jews asked Jesus about the work of God, they expected him to lay down lists of things to do. But that is not what Jesus says at all.

Jesus' answer is extremely compressed, and we must expand it and see what lies behind it. He said that God's work was to believe in him whom he had sent. Paul would have put it this way – the one work that God desires from us is faith. Now what does faith mean? It means being in such a relationship with God that we are his friends, not terrified of him any more but knowing him as our Father and our friend and giving him the trust and the obedience and the submission which naturally arise from this new relationship. How does believing in Jesus tie up with that? It is only because Jesus came to tell us that God is our Father and loves us and wants nothing more than to forgive, that the old distance and enmity are taken away and the new relationship with him is made possible.

But that new relationship issues in a certain kind of life. Now we know what God is like, our lives must answer to that knowledge. That answer will be in three directions, each of which corresponds to what Jesus told us of God. (1) God is love. Therefore, in our lives there must be love and service of others corresponding to the love and the service of God, and forgiveness of others corresponding to the forgiveness of God. (2) God is holiness. Therefore, in our lives there must be purity corresponding to the holiness of God. (3) God is wisdom. Therefore, in our lives there must be complete submission and trust corresponding to the wisdom of God.

The essence of the Christian life is a new relationship to God, a relationship offered by him and made possible by the revelation which Jesus gave us of him, a relationship which issues in that service, purity and trust which are the reflection of God. This the work which God wishes us and enables us to perform.”

Many thanks to everyone for “doing your part of God's work”.

Note: To date NCUSFW has made over 160 sanitary pad kits. Last fall 34 were sent to Marian Baker who took them to Kenya. The remainder have been mailed to FUM in Richmond, Indiana to be taken to Kenya this spring when Covid travel restrictions allow. Continuation of this project will be determined by the knowledge we gain after this last shipment is delivered.

Helping FEMAP

Friends Emergency Material Assistance Program

Editor's note: this is one of our NC USFW projects ... supported by more than money, as these pictures show. Support can be on an individual level like Bethel Friends' member and/or on the Meeting level such as at Rocky River Friends Meeting.

From Judy Craven and Rausie Hobson of Rocky River Friends Meeting: Several years ago Rocky River decided to do a “Reverse Advent Calendar”; one that gives instead of receives. An attender built this “tree” for us to donate items or money for items that are on the FEMAP ‘needed items’ lists. During Christmas 2021 178 FEMAP Emergency kits were assembled, a total of 1850 items! It is truly more blessed to give than to receive.

From Sarah Cox of Bethel Friends Meeting: A young lady in our meeting wanted to donate her “pocket money”, that she had earned, to help other people. Two ladies from the Bethel USFW volunteered to take the money and see how many items they could purchase for the FEMAP school and farm worker kits. As you can see from the picture, it was quite a lot! We are so proud of Zoe for her desire to share her blessings with others.

LITERATURE

Sarah Cox

One year, 365 days

Our granddaughter just celebrated her first birthday. That’s 365 days that we have gotten to watch her learn and grow. During that year, I was able to spend some time with her, reading, singing, rocking, cuddling and playing. That time is something I will always treasure. That was time well spent.

Each time she came to visit, we could see so many changes. We watched her learn to roll over and then to crawl and then to pull up. So far, walking is not of interest to her. She can get where she wants to go by crawling! She has learned to respond to our voices and has found a voice of her own to call mama and dada and her best friend, Duncan. When she calls, “Du” comes running to lick her face and the floor under her high chair!

It’s been amazing to see how much growth and change has come about in this one year! As a child of God, how much do we grow each day and change each day? Do we make an effort to learn and grow in our walk with God or are we satisfied with just crawling along? Are we using every day, all 365 days, of the year to learn how to better serve God?

Sometimes we get lazy and just let the days slip by without using or sharing the blessings that God has given us. As we take on the challenges of this year of 2022, may we make each day count, always with an open heart and open mind for what God has for us.

I am looking forward to seeing all of you on May 21 at our spring conference at Quaker Lake. At that time, I will have our new books. I hope you will come by and pick out some good books that will help you to learn and grow in your Christian walk.

Prayers for God’s guidance and blessings,

Sarah Cox 336-963-2710
